

Join the BSF Teen Book Club

February - April

L.M.Elliott

In the months of rising tensions before the surprise overnight raising of the Berlin Wall, teenaged cousins Drew, an American army brat in West Berlin, and Matthias, a young communist in East Berlin, become wary friends on opposite sides of the Cold War.

What we're reading:

WALLS by L.M. Elliott

What we'll be doing:

Meeting the author. Talking about WALLS, history and military life. Connecting with teens across the country. Offering opportunities to share your creative expressions.

Who's the club for:

Readers ages 12 and up

When we'll be virtually meeting:

8 p.m. - 9 p.m. ET

- | | |
|--------------|--|
| February 10: | Informational meeting |
| March 10: | Discuss the book and meet author L.M. Elliott |
| March 24: | Creative expression design preparation for interested participants |
| April TBD | Reflection presentations and celebration |

Register here: <https://bsfteenbookclub.eventbrite.com/>